

Kendra MacBride DPT

Physical Therapist

Kendra has been working in outpatient orthopedics since she received her Doctorate degree of Physical Therapy from the University of New England in 2012. She is particularly interested in orthopedic injuries, post-operative rehabilitation, and sports related injuries. Kendra plays soccer several times a week and enjoys outdoor sports such as running, hiking with her dog, swimming, and playing ultimate Frisbee.

Education	University of New Hampshire – 2009 Bachelors of Arts in Psychology University of New England –2012 Doctorate of Physical Therapy
Specialties	Return to Sport Rehab Orthopedics Post-operative rehab Certified in Dry Needling